

ABOUT THE ANAHEIM ACHIEVES AFTER SCHOOL COLLABORATION

QUICK FACTS

- Program began in 1999
- Serves 4,600 students in 46 school sites each day (37 elementary sites, 6 junior highs and 3 high schools)
- Award-winning Collaboration
The Anaheim Family YMCA is the lead facilitator. Other partners include the City of Anaheim, California and O.C. Departments of Education and four school districts (Anaheim City, Magnolia, Savanna, and Anaheim Union High School)
- Provides a balanced curriculum of academics, enrichment, character and fitness/nutrition
- Keeps kids safe from 3 to 6 p.m., the hours where kids are most susceptible to negative influences.
- Provides students with tutoring and mentoring
- Improves physical fitness and good nutrition through Y Be Healthy program, made possible by the Carol M. White Foundation and U.S. Department of Education
- Quarterly community events: Student Showcase, Read With Me, Kids Challenge, Fit-n-Fun Family Day
- Only $35 per month at elementary schools (free at junior highs and high schools)

A VALUABLE COMMUNITY RESOURCE:

- Keeps kids safe and our community safe
- Gives parents peace of mind during the work day
- Builds community pride by involving students, parents, business leaders and volunteers in the lives of our young people.
