

HISTORY OF THE ANAHEIM FAMILY YMCA

In 1911, at just 13 years old, Charles Pearson rode his bicycle up and down Center Street collecting a dollar from each business to establish the town's first YMCA. With the support from the community, the YMCA began offering its first programs for youth, including the new Hi-Y clubs in local schools. In 1947, more than three decades after founding the Anaheim YMCA, Charles Pearson went on to become the city's mayor.

OUR CAUSE

We know that lasting personal and social change comes about when we all work together. That's why, at the Y, strengthening community is our cause. Every day, we work side-by-side with our neighbors to make sure that everyone, regardless of age, income or background, has the opportunity to learn, grow and thrive.

OUR MISSION

To build and sustain strong kids, strong families and strong communities by putting Christian principles into practice through programs that build healthy spirit, mind, and body for all.

On behalf of the more than 25,000 kids and families served, thank you for your generous support.

For a better us.
